

A close-up, high-speed photograph of a hand reaching out, with a massive cloud of fine white powder or dust erupting from it. The powder fills the upper half of the frame, creating a dramatic, ethereal effect against a dark, textured background. The hand is positioned in the lower center, with fingers slightly curled. The lighting highlights the texture of the powder and the skin.

WORKTOPS

The perfect combination of design and functionality in the kitchen.

As a central element of every kitchen, the worktop shapes the character of the entire room and has to do more than just impress with its looks. Fundermax worktops stand out as they are highly resilient, easy to clean and extremely durable. Thanks to their surface quality, they prevent the spread of bacteria.

The high pressure laminates (HPL) can be processed with millimeter precision, so you can plan the exactly kitchen you want. The worktops are delivered in a dimension of 4,100 x 1,300 mm with a thickness of 12 mm.
